LIFE AND LOVE.

O! soul of important life, shine forth From thy starry heights above;
Over the South and over the North, Pour thy ineffable love.

Teach us that death is but a sleep Of rest, till the dawn of day, To break from the ocean's mighty deep,
On its universal way.

Up, up from the pearly gates of morn,
Through the blue of cloudless day, O! burn to their roots all hate and scorn
In the sunset's crimson ray.

O! come, in thy tenderness, sweet love,
From the graves of all the dead,
And hover and brood, O! gentle dove!

With thy deathless power, instead, O! soul of the sacrifice of God!
O! night of his soulless sea!
Unveil the face, till the death-path trod,
Brings life and sets all men free.

As white as the snow-flakes, and as still As the heights from which they fall, O! compass thy perfect love, thy will,
In the hearts and lives of all.

—W. H. Thorne.

COUNTY COURT.

Brief Sketches of Some of our Best Citizens.

Below we give short sketches of the gentlemen who compose our County Court:

Septimus Taylor Stevens.

The subject of this sketch was born near Cromwell, this county, Jan. 31, 1855. His father, Blackstone Stevens, was a highly respected citizen, in moderate circumstances, who died when our hero was quite young. His mother, Hannah Taylor Stevens, came of a good family, and when her husband died she had to struggle hard with the two noble boys, of whom the oldest was Septimus, and of course on him fell the greater responsibility. But his mother never looked to him in vain; he was always ready, always honest, always industrious. The spring, summer and autumn brought the planting, tending and gathering of the crop, and winter his attendance on the country school.
He very early manifested more than ordinary ability as a student and soon developed a strong love for books, thus the years of youth were passed.

When he arrived at the age of young manhood he found himself endowed with strong mind and muscle.
He determined to educate himself, and by his own hard labor, after helping to provide for his mother, he accumulated means sufficient to enable him to attend the Rockfield school, Warren county, in 1875, and the Auburn High School, Warren county, in 1877. Here he again distinguished himself as a student. He paid much attention to the development of his splendid physique by taking part in gymnastics, in which he became quite proficient. After having thoroughly prepared himself, Mr.
Stevens began teaching in the established common schools where he soon gained an enviable reputation as an able and efficient teacher.

Mr. Stevens sought and won the hand of Miss Laura Taylor, daughter of H. B. Taylor, Sr., of Beaver Dam.
Miss Taylor was a beautiful and accomplished young lady, and the happy union took place February 27, 1879. To them have been born five children: Claude A., aged twelve years; Chester D., aged ten; E. Cecil, aged eight; Winona C., aged one year and eight months, and a child that died in infancy. Mr. Stevens continued teaching during the fall and winter until 1887, since which time he has devoted his whole attention to farming, in which, as in teaching, he has been very successful. He has a good farm in a high state of cultivation, plenty of stock and farming implements, and is, in short, one of the nicest farmers in the Southern part of the county.

Mr. Stevens is a Republican and a Baptist. In August, 1890, he was elected Justice of the Peace for Cromwell Magisterial District, and as an officer is painstaking, accurate and conscientious. His sterling qualities of head and heart, his great and unalterable honesty make him an example worthy of the imitation of the earnest, energetic boys of the county.

Robert Taylor Render

First saw the light of day on November 10, 1849. He was born near where the pleasant little city of McHenry now stands, of one of the oldest and best families of the county. His father, J. L. Render, was a son of Robert Render, one of the old pioneers of the Green River country. It is related of the old pioneer that he was once passing through a cane-brake near the mouth of Lewis Creek, armed with his hunting knife when he was attacked by a huge bear, but by skillful use of his knife he succeeded in slaying the ferocious beast without receiving any serious wound himself.

He was Moderator of the Kentucky Baptist Association for forty years. Robert T. labored on the farm during the greater part of the year as he grew up to manhood and only enjoyed such educational advantages as could be had in the old subscription school. But he was quite early distinguished for his close observation and thus he acquired a knowledge of men and things that many with better opportunities have failed to obtain. He was ever fearless and true, and early in life won the confidence of his people which he yet enjoys. On October 10, 1870, he was married to Miss Mary A. McConnell, a woman of great worth, and to them nine children have been born: Ida B., aged 19; Katie, aged 17; Moses Pendleton, aged 14; Winfield Scott, aged 12; Maude, aged 10; Roscoe, aged 7; Alvin Clarence, aged 5; Grover, aged 3, and Joshua James, aged 8 months.

Mr. Render has been a life-long farmer and is in good circumstances, owning one of the best farms about McHenry. He is a Baptist and until recent years has been a Democrat but is now claimed as a Third Party man. He was elected Justice of the Peace for the Hartford Magisterial District in August, 1886 and was re-elected August, 1890. Being a man of energy, strong convictions and great tenacity of purpose, coupled with pleasing address, he commands the respect and wins the love of his fellow-men.

Henry Franklin Myers

Was born in our sister State, of Tennessee, April 24, 1859, son of William and Mary Slagle Myers.
William Myers was a man prominent in local politics, once making a race for a seat in the Legislature of Tennessee, and being defeated by only a few votes. While Henry was quite young his father moved to this State and settled in Madison county, and finally in 1873 he moved to this county and bought a farm near Rosine, where he has since lived. Young Myers worked hard on the farm and owing to that fact his educational advantages were limited to the district school. But he made such good use of the opportunities that were here afforded that he acquired a fair education, and in 1887 taught a very successful school at White Oak, near Olaton.

Mr. Myers wooed and won Miss Malinda Bennett, daughter of John Allen Bennett, Sulphur Springs, to whom he was married in July, 1885.
They have three children, Buhal Ernestine, aged four; Guy Fulton, aged two, and Eulah Edna, aged one.
In religious belief Mr. Myers is a Methodist, in political belief a Republican. From among a number of candidates he was elected Justice of the Peace in August, 1890, for the Rosine Magisterial District, and is a careful faithful officer. He has been appointed by the Court a member of the Board of Commissioners authorized to build the Barretts Ferry bridge over Rough River, which is, by the way, a worthy compliment worthy bestowed.

Trained in the school of adversity, bred in the independent life of the farmer, possessed of a rugged house, having raised by hard labor from humble circumstances to competency, Henry Franklin Myers moves among his fellows a model, upright honest man.

Sanford L. Fulkerson

Was born and reared in Ohio county near Ceralvo, on Green River. He remained with his father on the farm until he was twenty-one years of age, when he started in life to battle for himself. He carried with him the same rugged honesty, that had characterized his youth, and which has since made him so popular with his people, and won for him his well merited success.

Mr. Fulkerson has filled several positions of honor and trust, with great credit to himself, and benefit to his country. He was elected Constable in the old Centertown District, in 1875, and remained one term.
During the years 1877-78-79-80 he was Deputy Sheriff; in 1881-82 he was Deputy Assessor; 1883-84, 85-86-87 he was Deputy Clerk in his part of the county; in 1888, he was elected, and served as Police Judge of Ceralvo; in 1889-90 and until June, 1891, he was Deputy Sheriff under our present Sheriff, Mr. S. C.
Taylor, when he took his seat as Justice of the Peace for the Rockport Magisterial District, to which position he was elected in August, 1890.

Perhaps no man in Ohio county, has been as continuously in the service of the people, and filled so many different positions in the last seventeen years as has Mr. Fulkerson.
He has been married twice and has two children, both boys—Henry, aged 8, and McHenry, aged 4 years.

He has given much attention to music, both vocal and instrumental, having won several prizes in contests in vocal music, and having organized and maintained one or two very successful corn bands.

Mr. Fulkerson is now engaged in mercantile business at Ceralvo, where he holds his office as Justice of the Peace.

John P. Morton

Was born in this county, near South Carrollton, 1891, of a good family.
His parents, Jesse and Sallie Paxton Morton, died when John P. was but four years old. He lived with an uncle until his twentieth year. He had but little opportunity to attend even the schools of that day, poor as they were, and his attainments in education were necessarily limited. But by close and extensive reading in later years he has made himself one of the best informed men of the county. In 1861, in his twentieth year, he enlisted in Company B, 17th Kentucky, and was Sergeant under Capt. W. H. Davidson. He was a good soldier, and after serving three years and four months was mustered out at Louisville, Jan. 23, 1865.

On May 20, 1866, he was married to Miss Ella Austin, a woman of rare qualities of head and heart. They have eight children.

Judge Morton settled and lived near Prentiss until his election to the Judgeship when he moved to Hartford. In 1882 he was elected Justice of the Peace for the Cromwell Magisterial District, and was re-elected in 1886. He was elected County Judge in August 1890, and is the first Republican to hold that position in the history of the county. He is in religion a Methodist, in politics a Republican. As a farmer he was thrifty and successful, as an officer he is accurate and conscientious, free from bias, fearless in his discharge of duty, true to law.

NO. 25.

Feb. 8.—The sick at Melvin Taylor's are convalescing.

The school organized a Mock Congress Friday night. Slade Taylor was elected to the distinguished position of Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Our school here is only a week old. Of course we have not learned much yet, but have reasons to believe that many thoughts will be gleaned from the "field of knowledge," as the days go by.

Our next subject for debate is Resolved, "That the American Indians should support themselves."

A STUDENT.

The Lover's Lament.
Your face is like a drooping flower, Sweetheart!

I see you fading, hour by hour,
Sweetheart!

Your rounded outlines waste away,
In vain I weep, in vain I pray, What power death's cruel hand can stay? Sweetheart, Sweetheart!

Why, nothing but Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It imparts to the failing system, cures organic troubles, and for debilitated and feeble women generally, is unequalled. It dispels melancholy and nervousness, and builds up both flesh and strength. Guaranteed to give satisfaction in every case, or money paid for it refunded.

Feb. 11, 1892.—Wm. Reid's baby is very sick of a gripe.

Joe Reid sold thirty acres of land to Robert Taylor at thirty dollars per acre.

A. C. Stevens and Billy Reid have sown two tobacco beds, which contain over three hundred square yards, besides several smaller ones.

Miss Opheba Stevens will teach the spring school at this place.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Affairs at the Great Capital —Items of Interest.

Special Correspondence to the REPUBLICAN.

FEB. 15, 1892.

Secretary Blaine is not a man of quick temper, but his even disposition was so badly disturbed by the silly statement made without the slightest foundation, that his letter stating that his name would not be presented to the Minneapolis convention was but the preliminary move towards his permanent retirement from public life, and that he intended in the near future to resign from the Cabinet, that he lost his temper, as the best man in the world would probably have done under the same circumstances. He characterized the statement as "an infernal lie, circulated by idle men who have nothing better to do." Mr. Blaine was never more interested in the duties of his position, and in the welfare of the Republican party which recognizes as that of the country, than he is to day, and if his health continues as good as it now is he will certainly remain at the head of the State Department during the rest of this administration, and during the next one, too, unless his desires undergo great change.

The Canadian reciprocity Commissioners, now here, came under orders from the Canadian government, and not upon any invitation from this Government. This year's correspondent knows to be absolutely correct, statements to the contrary notwithstanding. Secretary Blaine has courteously received them, as he was in duty bound to do, and their proposition will be given proper consideration, but unless they differ widely from those heretofore submitted by the Canadian government nothing will be accomplished at this end of the line, although some political benefit may accrue to the Canadian administration at home, because of its having made an apparent effort to obtain commercial reciprocity with the United States.

Friday was the anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln, the first Republican President, and one of the greatest men ever occupied the White House. There was no formal celebration of the event here, but Senator Cullom, accompanied by several Representatives in Chicago for the purpose of delivering an address on "Lincoln and the Republican party," to the Marquette Club of that city.

Representative Newberry, of Illinois, is pushing a bill he has introduced, to cut off all pensions now paid to foreigners and permanent non-residents. He says pensions are paid to at least fifteen thousand non-residents and that the greater portion of them never intend returning to the United States, and are raising their sons as citizens of the countries in which they reside making it possible at some time in the future, if their pensions continue to be paid, for the sons of men drawing pensions from the United States to be fighting against us as soldiers in a hostile army.

Sensational circles, irrespective of party, were shocked by the check recently displayed by Senator Hill.
At his request the Senate Committee several times postponed its report on the nomination of postmaster Rath-bun, of Elmre, N. Y., but, at last finding that Hill could show no good reasons for holding up the nomination longer the Committee favorably reported it. This week when the report was called up in executive session of the Senate, Hill presented, by proxy, a very modest request that the Senate would defer action until his return from setting up the pins for the control of the New York delegation to the Chicago Convention. Did the Senate get mad? Well, it at once confirmed Mr. Rathbun's nomination.

Mr. William Grinnell, who is a nephew of Vice President Morton, has been nominated to be third Assistant Secretary of State, to fill a vacancy.

The bill appropriating $300,000 for a bronze equestrian statue of Gen.
Grant in this city, which was passed by the Senate during the last Congress, has been again favorably reported to the Senate. Its passage by the Senate is certain, and the same ought to be true of the House, but it isn't. He is a rash man who attempts to predict what the befuddled majority of the House will do. So far, it does nothing with great industry.

The President has as yet given no attention to filling the vacancy on the Supreme Court. There are no applicants, in the ordinary understanding of that word, although, of course, the names of a number of eminent members of the bar have been suggested to the President.

The Democrats of the House have in the hope of obtaining some campaign material for use among those who are opposed to pensions, adopted a resolution for an investigation of the Pension Bureau. They will probably find it a boomerang before it is concluded.

SLEEPLESS NIGHT made miserable by that terrible cough. Shiloh's Cure is the remedy for you.

School District No. 92.

Mr. R. R. Wedding, of Rosine, who has taught five schools in this district, closed his school here on the 5th of this month. The school has proven to be one of the most successful schools ever taught here—73 pupils in attendance. The school was visited by several from adjoining districts on the last day. Prof. G. B. Likens, our former teacher, visited the school on the last evening, and gave us an interesting lecture. Mr. Wedding instructed his pupils for the last time this school and returned to Rosine, leaving behind his pupils, who love him, and the patrons who appreciate his work and wish him a happy vacation. L. B. M.

Attention Farmers.

W. E. McFarland's Auction House is the place to sell your tobacco.
Selling at auction is growing more popular with farmers every year, more especially since the formation of the Owensboro Tobacco Association, which furnishes protection to both buyer and seller. The law of the Association says that if buyer and seller cannot agree as to whether or not the tobacco comes up to sample sold by, that a reputable by-stander shall re-sample and certify to same, and both samples shall be laid before a reclamation committee, who shall settle the matter. This we think is perfectly fair to both buyer and seller and will cause many to sell their tobacco at auction that never did before. We are prepared to break Hhd. tobacco, and trust farmers at a distance will give me a liberal patronage, as it has long since been conceded that the Owensboro market is as good as any in the State. Argument is unnecessary. Just watch for prices weekly in this paper.
